People who need
people are the luckiest people.

A landscape painting featuring a wide, calm river in the foreground. The banks of the river are rocky and uneven. In the background, there are dark, silhouetted hills or mountains under a light, overcast sky. Bare tree branches frame the top and right sides of the scene.

"Then God sat down on the side of a hill where He could think.

By a deep, wide river He
sat down;
with His head in His hands,
God thought and thought
till He thought

I'll make me . . ."

MAN!"

— johnson

In the beginning

loneliness
and then ...

YOU CAME . . .

to fill and to have filled your need for PEOPLE.

You came to fill
the need
with study . . .

and play . . .

with laughter . . .

sometimes.*

you came seeking to make your halfness whole . . .

and to fulfill the dreams of becoming something better than what you were before . . .

*and in fulfilling the dreams, you've created memories — not necessarily
of books, or buildings,
not of letters or old songs . . .*

but of people — people who need other people — and they are the luckiest people in the world!

Dedication

Throughout this past year, not to mention the countless years before, a dedicated man has given unselfishly to promote all for which LaGrange College stands. He has a wealth of knowledge on more different subjects than anyone on campus, and he has shared this wealth with thousands of students.

Because of the time and the patience and the laughter and the tears he has given, and because this man's whole life has been devoted to people, we dedicate the 1971 Quadrangle to a true Virginia gentleman,

What is a professor?

He's a rare breed of animal, vegetable, and mineral that's got some thing about sacrifice.

He could probably be making more money elsewhere and could lots happier.

Yet, for some reason, he's here now making you miserable.

Oh, sure, some of them are sad, too — some of them are real sad.

But most of them are okay — real pals. Every now and then, you get one that gives out blanket A's and goes drinking with the guys.

But more often than not, you end up with a guy that walks into class the first day and says, "For tomorrow, read the first 20 chapters and be prepared for a test."

Student Government at LaGrange College is designed to speak and act for the students on our campus. It is an active organization which helps to guide students in our college community.

The Student Government Association has three branches. The executive council, which is under the direction of officers elected by campus wide balloting, coordinates and regulates all student activities on campus. The legislative council makes the rules which regulate the democratic living for LaGrange College students. The judicial council may try cases involving dishonesty, serious misbehavior, interpreting the constitution when necessary.

Panthers, '70-'71

The "Panther Pitt" was their home. Of the young men who lived there some will not return as residents. However, those who were there, and others who lived elsewhere, have made a momento for the college.

These men were nine links of a chain welded by Coach Al Mariotti. They were the LaGrange College Panthers of 1970-71. The record writers rearranged the record book — the boys had accepted the responsibility, worked hard, sacrificed time, blood, and energy, and it paid off. Yes, the Panthers were in the news: winning on the road, only one loss at home, first place in the Carr ratings, and being the first LaGrange team to reach the NAIA District 25 play-offs in Augusta.

Moments of the Panthers will live in the hearts of faithful fans, the cheerleaders, and the outstanding men who strived so hard to reach the goal of perfection.

In Memoriam

DAVID COVINGTON      RANDY GRIFFITH
May 23, 1970

When friends are taken from us, we mourn for a time, and then forget, and then something stirs our memory, and we remember again. But instead of being sad, let us be happy that we knew them, and remember the good times. Remember the happiness they brought into our lives, and the enthusiasm with which they lived every day.

STUDENT LIFE

"I still find each day too short for all the thoughts I want to think, all the walks I want to take, all the books I want to read, and all the friends I want to see. The longer I live the more my mind dwells upon the beauty and the wonder of the world."

— John Burroughs

Fall: 12 Weeks 'til Christmas

With Fall quarter came freshmen — green and wandering; and wondering, When will the New Dorm be finished?" But impatience was lost in the first hectic days of orientation, registration, pictures, and classes. In our excitement of a new beginning, we rushed down to the gym and let loose our pent-up tensions of the first week at the Panhellenic Dance. With registration and the first week completed, we began to get organized into our daily schedules.

Then finally — rush. Rest? No!
Homecomin's two weeks away.

Homecoming 1970

The Classics IV performed in concert on Thursday night to set off the Homecoming Weekend. Midnight tissue paper pokers and toilet paper rollers came out . . . and colorful floats magically appeared. Appeared, yes; but moved . . .?

The Choralaires and Madrigals performed on Dobbs' steps and afterwards Martha MacMillan was crowned 1970 Homecoming Queen. The Maid of Honor was Sandy Willis; 1st runner-up, Susie Chappell; 2nd runner-up, Rebecca Sherrill; 3rd runner-up, Barbara Wallace and Miss Congeniality, Linda Parsons.

Delta Tau Delta and Alpha Omicron Pi won the 1st place trophy, Wesley Fellowship 2nd place, and Kappa Sigma and Phi Mu won the Best Overall Float award. The Souls of Seven provided music for the dance —

"Celebrate! Celebrate! Dance to the Music!"

Interrupting fall finals, Dobbs Building burned on November 20, 1970. The fire started in the costume shop behind the stage, and soon spread throughout the building, making Dobbs a shell of brick and rock.

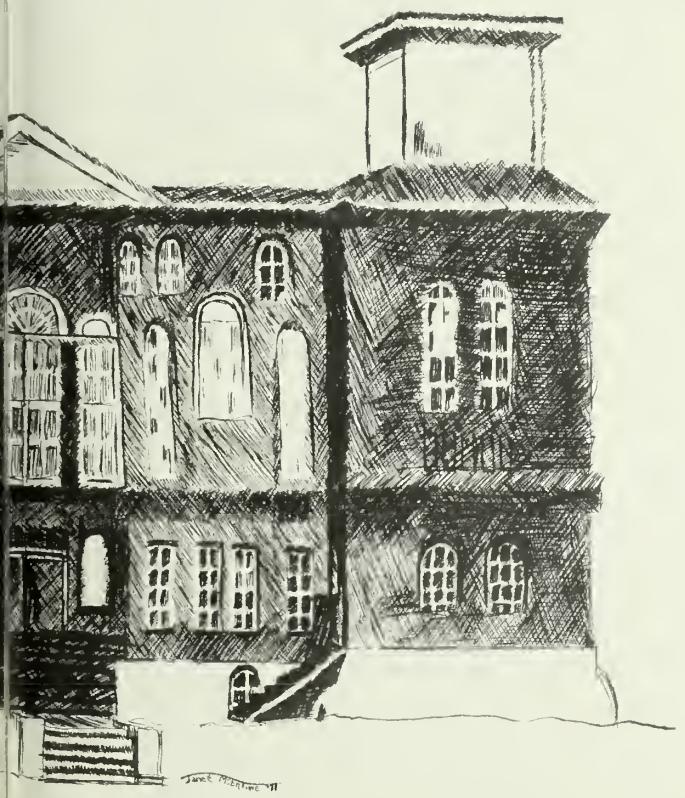

Dobbs was a second home to the science and drama people who worked, studied and played there. We will never forget the long labs, Dr. Shibleys' mice getting loose, all night play rehearsals and Doc's office.

Fall quarter ended in a brilliant flame . . .

Winter: Time Out to Study

The LaGrange campus shivers in the cold — but the cold was put aside and almost forgotten because of the red hot PANTHERS! Latent enthusiasm came bursting out and was encouraged by the cheerleaders. We cheered the boys on to Augusta, to the finals, and were not disappointed — they gave their best and every fan was proud of our team.

Winter brought snow, and the Quadrangle Dance. Charlene Hampton was crowned queen, and her senior court was Carol Vaughan, Delores Cruze, Maid of Honor Mikie Sackett, and Peggy Studstill. Sharon Nicholson represented the Junior Class, Sandy Willis, the Sophomore Class, and Anna Moldenhauer the Freshman Class.

Leslie Frost, daughter of Robert Frost, was brought to the campus by the Jenny Lee Epps Lecture Series in February.

The Curtain Raisers presented Neil Simon's hilarious comedy, Barefoot In the Park in the Simpson Room. The cast out-did themselves in the "theatre-in-the-round" production directed by John Mayberry.

Miss LaGrange College

The 1971 Miss LaGrange College Pageant, directed by Ces Lawton, put Susie Chappell in the running for Miss Georgia. Twenty talented girls participated in the pageant, making it a great success.

The girls competed in swimsuit, evening gown, and talent competition. Named Miss Congeniality was Sharon Nicholson, and the five finalists were Lu Marrah, Jamie Ward, Susie Chappell, Cindy Wapensky, and Martha MacMillan.

CONTESTANTS: Cathy Fuller, Pat Hicks, Martha MacMillan, Pat Coker, Sharon Nicholson, Sandy Willis, Cathy Vining, Peggy Freeman, Bonita Harris, Rebecca Sherrill, Martha MacMillan, Charlene Hampton, Janet McIntire, Jamie Ward, Lu Murrah, Thetis Sealey, Dena Watkins, Karen Samble, Dottye Martin, Cindy Wapensky.

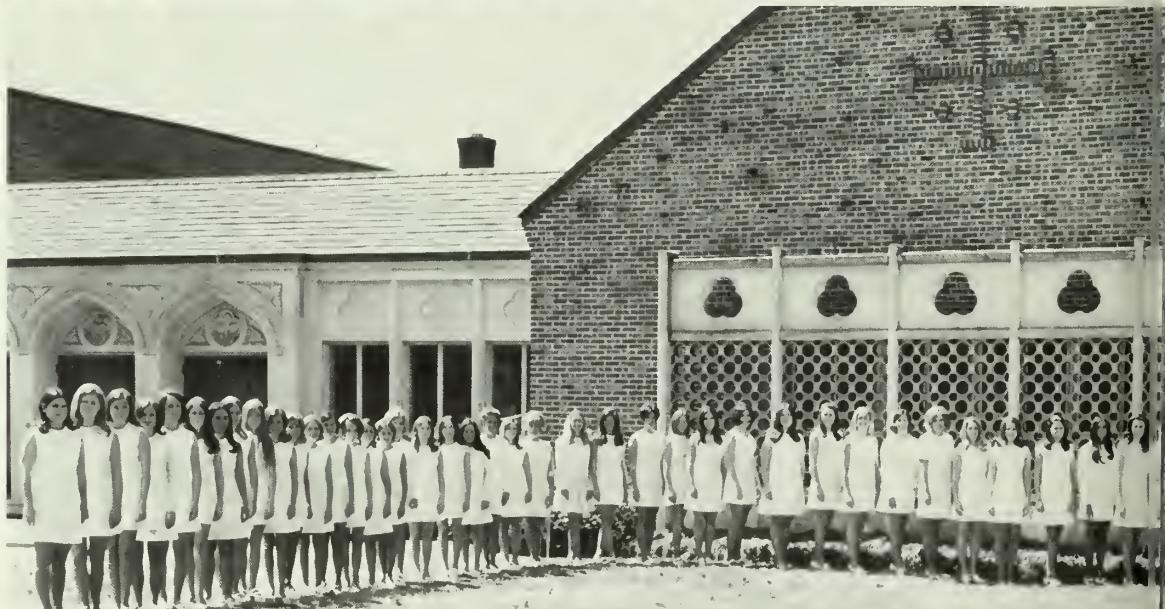

The first National Panhellenic Conference group on campus became the Delta Chi chapter of Kappa Delta during winter quarter. The Phi Mu Wash Board Band performed for Kiwanis men in Thomasston and LaGrange.

The months wore on, and Smith Parlor was afire.

Spring: Fun and Sun!

Ah, spring quarter — the dogwoods and azaleas bloom, and it's time to party!

The New Folk sang on the patio, and the second local sorority to go national became the Alpha Phi chapter of Phi Mu. Alpha Phi Beta became Lambda Chi chapter of Alpha Omicron, to complete the NPC on campus.

Involvement '71 was sponsored by Pi Kappa Phi, and brought national recognition to L.C. Senator Gaylord Nelson, the Father of Earth Day, was the keynote speaker. Dr. Dodd's discussion on sexual behavior turned out to be the "death" of Jackson, from drinking Chattahoochee River water. We showed our concern in a processional behind the hearse carrying Jackson's "body."

May Day, '71

With the burning of Dobbs in November, '71 May Day was held on the patio. A dismal Thursday and Friday darkened hopes for a sunny May 1st, but Saturday beamed in clear and beautiful. The May Court was presented by Master of Ceremonies Russ Everitt. The Court was, representing the Freshman Class, Anna Moldenhauer, and Kiki Carmichael; from the Sophomore Class, Cathy Mashburn and Sandy Willis; from the Junior Class, Cindy Wapenshy and Carol Kangieser; and from the Senior Class, Delores Cruze and Charlene Hampton. Maid of Honor Mikie Sackett was escorted by Luther Tison, and then came Queen Connie Lyle escorted by King Frank Parsons.

Step-singing competition followed. Kappa Sigma was the only men's group to sing, and won with "Burning Bridges." Phi Mu won sorority competition with "Wonderful World" and Delta Tau Delta and Alpha Omicron Pi won combined with "Give Me Your Tired, Your Poor."

May Day, '70

Queen Peggy Cobb and King Ed Frazier reigned over May Day '70. Their court was, from the Freshman Class, Cindy Lancaster and Cathy Mashburn; from the Sophomore Class, Nancy Key and Mary Lewis; from the Junior Class, Carol Vaughan and Connie Lyle; and from the Senior Class, Beth Dupree and Libby Field. Maid of Honor, Jeanne Marie Blackburn was escorted by Bill Blake. Step-singing winners were Pi Kappa Phi for "Scarborough Fair"; Phi Mu for "The Wild Eyes of a Child"; and Kappa Sigma and Phi Mu combined singing "Mighty Big Ways."

"Stop the World, I Want to Get Off," starred John Wilson as Little Chap. Linda Parsons and Russ Everitt played the Girl and Boy in "The Fantastics." The Shorb Brothers returned with their songs and discussions.

Finals were upon us before we knew it. What is it about spring quarter finals that transforms us from our reserved dedicated selves, into neurotics (nu rot' ik), adj. 1. a suffering from emotional instability, characterized especially by anxiety and a feeling of insecurity.

And finally, graduation.

One hundred ten seniors received their BA degrees on June 5, 1971, culminating four years of work. But, we've only just begun . . . to live . . .

Only the Griffin could symbolize West Point Pepperell

. . . Because only the Griffin symbolizes all the things WestPoint Pepperell is known for.

In ancient mythology, the Griffin, with the head and wings of an eagle and the body of a lion, was the guardian of treasure. He had strength. He had agility, vigilance. In the textile industry, in our plant communities and wherever we do business, WestPoint Pepperell is known for those same qualities.

Proudly displayed on all our products, the legendary Griffin tells the modern-day fact of the dedication to quality, integrity and reliability of more than 20,000 WestPoint Pepperell people.

In your home, clothing and automobile—in industry and wherever American military forces serve—the Griffin marks the finest in textiles. Textiles from WestPoint Pepperell, for today and tomorrow.

LaGrange College is not content to rest on its 140-year history of service. It realizes it must go forward to meet the competition of ever-expanding, state-supported colleges and universities. It must retain an able faculty, maintain high academic standards, acquire adequate facilities, and, above all, provide its students with a truly Christian environment. Only then will LaGrange expand its Margin of Distinction that sets it apart.

The Margin of Distinction program, with an ultimate goal of Nine Million Dollars, is a commitment to quality education. It is a pledge to provide every LaGrange College student with the best possible opportunity for intellectual, spiritual and physical growth. It is an effort to keep the church-related college not only one of the most powerful moral forces in our country but a bulwark against materialism and social decadence.

To achieve the Margin of Distinction, over a ten-year period, LaGrange will:

- Almost double the student enrollment.
- Double the size of the faculty.
- Enlarge and enrich the library to 100,000 volumes.
- Establish a fund for special laboratory equipment, a computer, closed-circuit TV, and advanced visual aids.
- Enrich the spiritual environment of the College.

Dean Young, cartoonist in charge of production of the Blondie comic strip, is the son of Chic Young, creator of the famous strip. Dean Young is a graduate of LaGrange College.

— "AN INSTITUTION FOR SAVINGS AND HOME OWNERS" —

You voted for a change in the 1971 Quadrangle, and it has been a great undertaking for all who were involved. Trying to picture the whole year as completely as possible has been our challenge. We had our problems and disappointments, but we worked long hours in accomplishing our goal.

This book is the result of many people working together, but I must say a special thank you to Susan Nolan, better known as Pert, for all she's done — especially putting up with me. I am most grateful to Mr. Shellohorse and Mr. Lawrence, our advisors, for their help, and to Ralph, Shelley, Janet, Eddie and Donna for their special jobs.

During this past year I've learned more than ever before I need PEOPLE, and working with them I have completed a task I thought I could never finish. I hope this book has something meaningful to each of you — if so, it was worth it all.
